

Taborers Symposium – York, Friday 17 June 2022

2:00 to 5:00 pm in The Black Swan, Peaseholme Green, York, YO1 7PR

From pipe and tabor to flute, trumpet and drum

Programme

Bill Tuck

From pipe & tabor to flute, drum and trumpet

Starting from the Great Whitsun Feast of 1306, we trace the evolution of the 'flute, drum & trumpet' band over 700 years as it adapts to new fashions and demands while still retaining its basic structure and function as a ceremonial ensemble.

Gillian Guest

Some straightforward taboring patterns

Spice up your performance!

How to add variety and interest to your taboring by exploring more adventurous rhythms.

Andy Richards

Highs and Lows - Pipe and Tabor and Flute and Drum in and around Northamptonshire

This paper looks at the fluctuating fortunes of pipe and tabor and flute and drum in and around Northamptonshire.

Barry Lloyd

Pipe and rebec combined?

Several Italian 15th century illustrations show combination of three-hole pipe and rebec. The talk will enlighten us on the problems of reconstruction and performance on this curious instrument.

